"WE ARE RECRUITING A TRANSLATOR"

Some of you might surprise to see a rant page in our release. Indeed, it is the first time we do this stuff. However, we have reached a conclusion that a rant page is the best way to contact the reader and add in some extra information.

As you could see so far, Mecha has been randomly stuck up (second efforts) in the bubbles and thus confused us, the translators, as well as the readers. It's very hard to get which one is which in the ROM. However, our devoted typesetter, Godmode, and someone it all and labeled it all clearly. Our big cheer for Godmode!

The main issue remains is that WE NEED A TRANSLATOR, the current script is provided by Epele, one of the guest in our forum, and he is not committed to us. We need a permanent translator.
